Awards & Grants

Aly Spealman, graduate student in the Kotlikoff and Davisson laboratories, has been selected by the American Physiological Society to receive the 2009 Caroline tum Suden/ Frances A. Hellebrandt Professional Opportunity Award. This prestigious award, given only to 36 graduate students and postdoctoral fellows from across the US, provides $500 and complimentary registration for the upcoming Experimental Biology 2009 meeting in New Orleans.

Quotables:

“For each petal on the shamrock this brings a wish your way. Good health, good luck, and happiness for today and every day.”

- Irish Blessing

Eve Donnelly, formerly a post doc in Cornelia Farnum’s lab and currently a post doc at Weill Medical School’s Hospital for Special Surgery, won a New Investigator Recognition Award (NIRA) at the annual meeting of the Orthopaedic Research Society for her poster entitled: “Primary Cilia are Highly Oriented with Respect to Collagen Direction and Long Axis of Tendon”. Eve was one of forty chosen to present at the meeting, out of over 900 initial entrants. At the meeting all forty finalists were interviewed by the NIRA Committee and ten award recipients were selected upon the quality and presentation of material in the abstract, the quality of the poster, and the ability to discuss the material. Eve’s specific award was sponsored by the Association of Bone and Joint Surgeons. Congratulations to Eve!

Congratulations!

SeungWoo Jung, DVM, has been selected into the prestigious Cardiology Residency program at UC Davis. Dr. Jung is currently a graduate student in the laboratory of Teresa Gunn. He expects to complete his PhD in Molecular and Integrative Physiology before heading to California.

Welcome!

The Roberson Lab welcomes a new technician, Rachel Slater!

Rachel has been a CU staff member since July 2001, with five years in Laboratory Animal Services and two years in Nutritional Sciences. Her interests outside of work consist of her daughter Kylie, spending time with her family and friends and enjoying hunting and fishing.

Publications, contd.

Administrative Staff in The College of Veterinary Medicine are invited to Administrative Networking Lunches (you bring your lunch - Beverage and Cookies provided). These luncheons are held once a month. The next Administrative Networking Lunch will be March 12, 2009 from 12-1pm in the Hagan Room.
SEMENAR SERIES - SPRING 2009
DEPARTMENT OF BIOMEDICAL SCIENCES

March 10
DR. AH-NG TONY KONG
Ernest Mario School of Pharmacy
Rutgers, The State University of New Jersey
"Genomics and Cancer Chemoprevention by Dietary Food Factors"
Hosted by Dr. Andrew Yen, 253-3354, ay13@cornell.edu

March 17
DR. VYTAS A. BANKAITIS
School of Medicine
University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill, NC
"Nanoreactors that specify outcomes for phosphoinositide signaling in yeast and mammalian systems"
Hosted by Dr. Alexander Travis, 256-5613, ajt32@cornell.edu

March 24
DR. CORNELIA A. FARNUM
College of Veterinary Medicine, Cornell University
"Primary Cilia of Skeletal Tissue Cells: Analyzing Incidence and Orientation using Multiphoton Microscopy"

March 31
DR. ERIC J. BROWN
Abranson Family Cancer Research Institute
University of Pennsylvania School of Medicine
"Replication fork stability and the prevention of cancer and aging"
Hosted by Dr. Robert Weiss, 253-4443, rsw26@cornell.edu