

Cornell University College of Veterinary Medicine Alumni Association Executive Board

DVM degree from Cornell required

At-Large Member Nomination Form
Term begins July 1, 2027
Form due: February 1, 2027

Under the governance of the Alumni Association Executive Board, the Alumni Association sponsors a variety of programs and services to promote the Veterinary College, its welfare and the interests of its alumni. The Association shall advance the educational and charitable interests of the Cornell University College of Veterinary Medicine and shall promote the personal and professional development of its alumni and students. All graduates who have received the D.V.M. degree shall be members of the Alumni Association.

The duties of At Large Members shall include assisting the Officers and staff in conducting the official business of the Association, establishing policy, service on committees and task forces, interacting with students, and representing the Association and the AAEB when needed. At Large members shall serve a two-year term which may be renewed one time.

Nominee name:

Cornell degree(s) & year(s):

Self-nomination: ___ Yes ___ No

If no, Nominator's name [& Cornell degree(s) & year(s), if applicable]:

Please provide information on the nominee

1/ Work/Specialty/Business (+ location):

2/ Leadership activity (previous Cornell + any known non-Cornell leadership roles):

3/ Brief bio (and link to LinkedIn profile, if available):

4/ How has this candidate demonstrated the expertise, commitment, and character to be a volunteer for Cornell. Please provide specific examples based on your personal experience.

5/ Additional information to share about interest in the Alumni Association Executive Board (AAEB).

6/ Current/Past position(s) and years served.

Direct questions and send completed form to Lyn LaBar at cel75@cornell.edu

or vet.alumni@cornell.edu

Subject: AAEB - Volunteer Interest

Office of Alumni Affairs & Development