

Cornell Veterinary Dentistry Diagnostic Program

A new, comprehensive online dentistry curriculum available to veterinary educators

Overview

Whether you are faculty looking to augment your students' theoretical knowledge of dentistry or a curriculum designer seeking a new method for competency training, this program is an efficient and engaging way to deepen a learner's knowledge of one of the fastest-growing clinical disciplines in the field: veterinary dentistry.

By incorporating this program into your curriculum, you're providing an additional layer of instruction for students to meet core competencies in veterinary dentistry confidently. It builds foundational skills through the clinical application of theoretical knowledge.

This program teaches

- The benefits of incorporating dental exams and intraoral radiology in daily clinical work
- The principles of intraoral radiography, and the correct use of radiology equipment and techniques to obtain and interpret diagnostic quality intraoral radiographs, including a full-mouth series

- How to perform conscious and anesthetized oral examinations, including how to compile and record significant findings and investigate abnormalities
- The normal anatomy of dental structures as it pertains to common diseases
- How to create and maintain a safe environment for patients and clinicians, including clinician ergonomics

Course details

Three comprehensive, self-paced courses comprise this program:

- Conscious Oral Exam of the Dog and Cat
- Intraoral Radiology in the Dog
- Oral Examination and Periodontal Charting in the Anesthetized Dog and Cat

Contact

Andrea Beukema,
Director of Educational
Support Services:
alb428@cornell.edu

Complete series info:
bit.ly/DentistryOverview

General inquiry form:
bit.ly/DentistryWebform

Our faculty

Dr. Nadine Fiani

Diplomate of the American
Veterinary Dental College

Associate Clinical Professor and Section Chief of Dentistry and Oral Surgery

Dr. Santiago Peralta

Diplomate of the American
Veterinary Dental College

Associate Professor in the Section of Dentistry and Oral
Surgery

College of Veterinary Medicine